DNOW FAQ

- What are the dates for DNOW?
February 15-17, 2019
- What are the payment costs and deadlines?
Early Bird Registrations — $40— November 25-December 6
Regular Registrations — $50 — January 7—February 3
Any registrations after February 3 — $60
- How do I register for DNOW?
Turn in this signed Registration Form, a completed Medical Release and Permission Form and your payment to a Student Ministry representative, place in any dropbox on campus OR turn in to Sarah in the FMC Office during office hours. (Office hours are Mon-Thur 7am-5pm—closed on Friday)
- When will I find out my Host Home and Small Group assignments? (This includes parents)
Host Homes and small group assignments are based on current school grade and will be revealed at dinner on Friday night at DNOW. We do not release assignments before the beginning of DNOW.
If you have a friend request, please note it on the registration above and we will do our best to honor it.
Any requests made after this form has been submitted cannot be guaranteed.
- What if I can't stay for the whole weekend?
If you have a prior commitment for part of the weekend, your parents will need to turn in a Time Away Card specifying the time frame that you will not be with the group. See Craig or Sarah if you need to complete this card.
- Is horseplay and/or pranking allowed this weekend?
No horseplay or pranking of any kind is allowed. If this happens, depending on the severity of the incident, possible consequences could be: calling the parent, not allowing the student to stay at the Host Home, or in extreme circumstances, the student being sent home for the rest of the weekend.
- Can I post to social media during the weekend?
Yes! Please do . . . But please be make sure all your posts reflect a Christlike attitude and example.

I have read, understand and agree to abide by the statements listed above.
